

To: Federal Communications Commission
RE: RM-11325

I urge the Commission to reject this petition filed by the ARRL. The Commission has ruled previously that APC was required for Spread Spectrum Use. APC has been an important part of commercial spread spectrum applications where Automatic Power Control is proven to reduce interference.

This petition, if adopted, would cause unacceptable interference to existing users like myself.

Thank You.

Mike Colyar
Olympia, WA 98501